

Guidelines for articles in De Rebus

De Rebus welcomes contributions in any of the 11 official languages, especially from practitioners. The following guidelines should be complied with:

- Contributions should be original and not published or submitted for publication elsewhere. This includes publication in electronic form, such as on websites and in electronic newsletters.
- De Rebus* only accepts articles directly from authors and not from public relations officers or marketers.
- Contributions should be useful or of interest to practising attorneys, whose journal De Rebus is. Preference is given, all other things being equal, to articles by attorneys. The decision of the editorial committee is final.
- Authors are required to disclose their involvement or interest in any matter discussed in their contributions.
- Authors are required to give word counts. Articles should not exceed 2 000 words. Case notes, opinions and similar items should not exceed 1 000 words. Letters should be as short as possible.
- Footnotes should be avoided. Case references, for instance, should be incorporated into the text.
- When referring to publications, the publisher, city and date of publication should be provided. When citing reported or unreported cases and legislation, full reference details must be included.
- All sources in the article should be attributed.
- De Rebus* will not publish plagiarised articles.
- Authors are requested to have copies of sources referred to in their articles accessible during the editing process in order to address any queries promptly.
- Articles should be in a format compatible with Microsoft Word and should either be submitted by e-mail or, together with a printout on a compact disk. Letters to the editor, however, may be submitted in any format.
- The Editorial Committee and the editor reserve the right to edit contributions as to style and language and for clarity and space.
- The Editorial Committee reserves the right to reject contributions without providing reasons.
- Articles should be submitted to De Rebus at e-mail: derebus@derebus.org.za or PO Box 36626, Menlo Park 0102 or Docex 82, Pretoria.
- In order to provide a measure of access to all our readers, authors of articles in languages other than English are requested to provide a short abstract, concisely setting out the issue discussed and the conclusion reached in English.
- Articles published in De Rebus may not be republished elsewhere in full or in part, in print or electronically, without written permission from the De Rebus editor. De Rebus shall not be held liable, in any manner whatsoever, as a result of articles being republished by third parties.
