Free State Division of the High Court open

The Legal Practice Council would like to inform all legal practitioners in the Free State that the Free State Division of the High Court is open and Judges are available, as such legal practitioners are at liberty to place all matters including Road Accident Matters on the roll.

The Free State High Court would also like to inform practitioners that it has elected a Covid-19 compliance officer who will circulate amongst the courts sitting to ensure compliance with relevant government regulations and procedures.

Legal practitioners can refer all enquiries to the office of the registrar at rnaude@judiciary.org.za or (051) 406 8173
