Notice

23 September 2020

The Legal Practitioners Fidelity Fund Board elections - final nominations now available

The Legal Practice Council would like to inform all interested persons that the final list of legal practitioners nominated for election to the Board of the Legal Practitioners Fidelity Fund is now available on the Council website.

Please click on the link below to access the list and profiles of nominated legal practitioners, which will be found on the Council's home page under "LPFF Board Elections 2020".

<https://lpc.org.za/>

Legal Practitioners are called upon to review the list and advise whether they are aware of any omissions from the list before voting is opened.

Practitioners were required to nominate candidates eligible for election in terms of Rule 46.1 and Rule 46.2 to stand for election to the LPFF Board. The period for nominations closed on 18 September 2020.

Any legal practitioner who believes that any person nominated for this election does not appear on the list is required to notify the Council by e-mail to lpffsupport@ince.co.za by 10am on Tuesday, 29 September 2020
