LEGAL PRACTICE COUNCIL

Notice

15 December 2020

Festive season message from the Legal Practice Council

The Councillors and staff of the Legal Practice Council would like to take the opportunity to wish all legal practitioners and the people of South Africa a safe and restful holiday season.

This year has been unprecedented in the number and diversity of challenges that our society has had to face as a result of the worldwide COVID-19 pandemic.

We wish to express our gratitude to the leadership of our country and in particular to President Ramaphosa and the Corona Virus Command Council who have in the face of the challenges and notwithstanding often unjustified criticism of the difficult decisions that have been made by them for the good of all the people of our country, stood unwavering in their commitment to navigate us through this difficult time and to keep everyone safe.

We urge everyone in our country to heed the new measures announced by our President on 14 December 2020. If everyone in the Republic continues to maintain their commitment to acting in the interests of the safety of all, in particular those whose state of health makes them most vulnerable, we have no doubt that we will as a society continue to weather the storm and to be standing tall when it is finally over.

A summary of the measures can be accessed by clicking here. https://www.cogta.gov.za/index.php/2020/12/15/tighter-level-1-restrictions-this-festive-season/
