The Legal Practice Council saddened by the passing of two prominent legal practitioners

The Legal Practice Council (LPC) expresses its sadness following the passing of Advocate Kemp J Kemp SC and Mr Pumzile Majeke

Advocate Kemp J Kemp SC was a member of the Society of Advocates of KwaZulu-Natal and served the profession with distinction since his admission in 1986.

Mr Pumzile Majeke was a long-practising and well-respected attorney who served as the President of the Cape Law Society from 2008 to 2010 and vice-president of the National Association of Democratic Lawyers from 1990 to 2004.

The death of these practitioners has left a big void in the legal profession, and the Council sends its heartfelt condolences to their family, friends, and colleagues.
