

Guidelines for articles in De Rebus

De Rebus welcomes contributions in any of the 11 official languages, especially from legal practitioners. The following guidelines should be complied with:

- 1 Contributions should be original. The article should not be published or submitted for publication elsewhere. This includes publications in hard copy or electronic format, such as LinkedIn, company websites, newsletters, blogs, social media, etcetera.
- 2 De Rebus accepts articles directly from authors and not from public relations officers or marketers. However, should a public relations officer or marketer send a contribution, they will have to confirm exclusivity of the article (see point 1 above).
- 3 Contributions should be of use or of interest to legal practitioners, especially attorneys. The De Rebus Editorial Committee will give preference to articles written by legal practitioners. The Editorial Committee's decision whether to accept or reject a submission to De Rebus is final. The Editorial Committee reserves the right to reject contributions without providing reasons.
- 4 Authors are required to disclose their involvement or interest in any matter discussed in their contributions. Authors should also attach a copy of the matter they were involved in for verification checks.
- 5 Authors are required to give word counts. Articles should not exceed 2 000 words. Case notes, opinions and similar items should not exceed 1 000 words. Letters should be as short as possible.
- 6 Footnotes should be avoided. All references must instead be incorporated into the body of the article.
- 7 When referring to publications, the publisher, city and date of publication should be provided. When citing reported or unreported cases and legislation, full reference details must be included. Authors should include website URLs for all sources, quotes or paraphrases used in their articles.
- 8 Where possible, authors are encouraged to avoid long verbatim quotes, but to rather interpret and paraphrase quotes.
- 9 Authors are requested to have copies of sources referred to in their articles accessible during the editing process in order to address any queries promptly. All sources (in hard copy or electronic format) in the article must be attributed. De Rebus will not publish plagiarised articles.
- 10 By definition, plagiarism is taking someone else's work and presenting it as your own. This happens when authors omit the use of quotation marks and do not reference the sources used in their articles. This should be avoided at all costs because plagiarised articles will be rejected.
- 11 Articles should be in a format compatible with Microsoft Word and should be submitted to De Rebus by e-mail at: derebus@derebus.org.za.
- 12 The publisher reserves (the Editorial Committee, the Editor and the De Rebus production team) the right to edit contributions as to style and language and for clarity and space.
- 13 In order to provide a measure of access to all our readers, authors of articles in languages other than English are requested to provide a short abstract, concisely setting out the issue discussed and the conclusion reached in English.
- 14 Once an article has been published in De Rebus, the article may not be republished elsewhere in full or in part, in print or electronically, without written permission from the De Rebus editor. De Rebus shall not be held liable, in any manner whatsoever, as a result of articles being republished by third parties.
