Legal Practice Council congratulates Chief Justice Zondo on his appointment

The South African Legal Practice Council congratulates Chief Justice Raymond Zondo on his appointment, and following this appointment welcomes the intention to nominate Justice Mandisa Maya as Deputy Chief Justice.

“Our country is privileged to have very capable individuals in our judiciary. All four candidates were excellent options for the position of Chief Justice and we are confident that newly appointed Chief Justice Zondo will lead the Judiciary very well,” said Janine Myburgh (Chairperson of the Legal Practice Council).

“As the Council, we look forward to working with the Chief Justice and the judiciary as a whole in upholding the rule of law and administration of justice, and in advancing the Constitution of the Republic,” concludes Myburgh.

About Legal Practice Council

The Legal Practice Council is a national, statutory body established in terms of section 4 of the Legal Practice Act, No 28 of 2014. The Legal Practice Council and its Provincial Councils regulate the affairs of and exercise jurisdiction over all legal practitioners (attorneys and advocates) and candidate legal practitioners.
