

SOUTH AFRICAN CHAPTER OF

International Association of Women Judges advancing human rights and equal justice for all

Launch Invitation

ABOUT THE EVENT

The South African Chapter of the International Association of Women Judges, Juta & Company and The Institute for African Women in Law cordially invite you to a joint launch event showcasing research and scholarly works by and about women in the legal profession in South Africa.

The evening will feature celebrated guest speakers Justices Mandisa Maya and Yvonne Mokgoro, pioneer female jurists and legal scholars who will share their insights and reflections on the struggle for gender equality.

The programme will commence with the launch of the extensive research conducted by the Institute for African Women in Law on women in law and leadership in the South African bar, bench and legal academy.

Publishers Juta & Company will proudly launch the first edition of a new peer-reviewed legal research Journal by The South African Chapter of the International Association of Women Judges.

The evening will be followed by an informal reception and networking.

Invitees are encouraged to participate in a guided walking tour of the historical Women's Gaol on Constitution Hill at 14:30 ahead of the start of the programme formalities at 16:00 in the Constitutional Court Foyer
