
The 10th Course of China-Africa Legal Professionals Exchange Program

Invitation Letter

Dear Participant

In order to fulfill Forum on China-Africa Cooperation Dakar Action Plan (2022-2024), strengthen mutual understanding and friendship as well as deepen practical cooperation between China-Africa legal fields, under the framework of the FOCAC - Legal Forum, China Law Society is going to hold the 10th Course of China-Africa Legal Professionals Exchange Program (“the Course”) from May 29th to June 2nd, 2023 online. We sincerely hope that your esteemed organization could recommend candidates to the Course.

The China-Africa Legal Professionals Exchange Program aims to promote legal information exchanges and personnel exchanges, enhance mutual trust and understanding between Chinese and African legal professionals, and it has been successfully held 9 times since 2014. Over 700 judges, prosecutors, lawyers, legal scholars and officials from over 30 African countries have participated in this program. The China-Africa Legal Professionals Exchange Program has made its contribution to improving China-Africa legal environment and building a China-Africa community with a shared future in the new era.

This Course will include opening ceremony, daily lectures (2-3 hours per day), “Cloud Visit” of well-known Chinese enterprises and legal institutions, as well as a half-day seminar. The language used during the Course will be English. We will invite famous Chinese experts to give video lectures. Certificates will be issued to qualified participants who complete this Course.

As a continuation of our friendship and cooperation, we sincerely invite your organization to participate in the 10th Course and recommend participants to the Course. Please kindly send their name, position, CV and contact information to us so that we could send the register code to them during the Course.

The participants shall register to the Zoom Cloud Meeting to attend online activities every day, including opening ceremony, video lectures and the seminar. The time of everyday events is around 15:00 GMT +8 (Beijing Time) (TBD). In order to further promote legal research and information exchanges, each participant is expected to submit thesis within the following 2 topics: a) Legal Risks and Countermeasures of International Investment and Trade; b) Latest Development on Economic and Trade Legal System of Your Own Country.

We firmly believe that with our joint efforts, the 10th Course would definitely be of great success and continue to be a significant platform to promote exchange and cooperation between China and Africa legal communities. For detailed information, please kindly find the attached documents.

Your kind support and positive cooperation would be highly appreciated.

We would be most grateful if you could kindly acknowledge receipt of this email as soon as possible and send us the registration form before May 15th.
